

CALLING FOR PARTICIPANTS

Additive, Dynamic and Usage-based Multilingual Approach (ADUMA) to English Language Teaching (ELT) in Malaysia

Who we are looking for

We are looking for English language teachers to participate in a study that attempts to define the parameters of when and where the use of learners' first language (L1) or the Mother Tongue (MT) in the English as a Second Language (ESL) classroom can be helpful to learners. We need participants who are:

1. English language teachers currently teaching in a secondary-level learning institution
2. Bi/multilingual

What we are offering

You are welcomed to attend the teaching workshops designed for our research participants. These workshops are meant to be informative and serve as catalysts for discussions among our participants.

1. Kindly register your interests in these workshops and provide your contact details using the following Google Form link:
<https://forms.gle/EzWB4UarJ5nNrWTV5>
2. The research team will get in touch with you to coordinate a schedule for the workshop sessions.
3. The teaching workshops sessions are offered FREE-OF-CHARGE.

Workshop Content

The workshops are as follows:

1. General Overview
2. The Environment and Language Learning
3. Theoretical Concepts in a Multilingual Approach to Language Teaching
4. Practical Applications of a Multilingual Approach to Language Teaching
5. Classroom-based Assessment

Each session would generally last between 90 to 120 minutes, spread across several weeks. Workshops would be conducted virtually via Zoom/Skype/Google Meet. Do note that all workshop sessions will be recorded and transcribed.

What we are looking for

The primary aim of these workshops is to investigate:

1. how you perceive the use of L1 or MT in your specific teaching context
2. how the teaching context affects your teaching beliefs and practices.

Confidentiality & Right to Withdraw

You are expected to collaborate and work with fellow workshop participants. Your identities are known only to your fellow participants and the research team, but your personal information will be kept strictly confidential. You have the right to withdraw from the workshops at any time without providing any reasons.

For more information about the ethical requirements of this study, kindly read the Participation Information Sheet at:
